

SyberWorks announces a new article available in its Media Center: “10 Tips For Writing an e-Learning RFP / RFQ”

Waltham, Massachusetts –May 30, 2006

SyberWorks, Inc., a leader in custom e-Learning Solutions and the Learning Management System (LMS) industry, today announces a new article available in the SyberWorks Online Media Center: “10 Tips For Writing an e-Learning RFP / RFQ.”

Dave Boggs, CEO of SyberWorks, states:

“Many organizations steer clear of the RFP / RFQ (Request For Proposal / Request For Quotation) process for valid business reasons, but for those individuals in large organizations that must write RFP / RFQs, this article provides information and guidelines to help with the task of writing an e-Learning / Learning Management Systems RFP / RFQ.”

Boggs continues, “In general, it takes a considerable amount of skill to write a RFP / RFQ document. It can be made more difficult when writing an e-Learning RFP / RFQ because Learning Management Systems are complex software application that impact and interact with many different organizational roles and various department infrastructures.”
