

Veracord Delivers FDA Expertise with SyberWorks Latest Learning Management Solution

Waltham, Massachusetts – August 4, 2009

San Jose, CA (PRWEB) 4 August 2009 – Veracord™, (www.veracord.com), a privately held consulting company, announced today its marketing partnership with SyberWorks Incorporated, a leader in custom Learning Management System solutions. Veracord's comprehensive validation and compliance expertise extends the SyberWorks web-based learning management system (LMS) offerings to companies aimed to compete in the FDA regulated industry. Together, Veracord and SyberWorks offer clients a competitive advantage gained from utilizing cutting edge learning management solutions combined with the latest industry knowledge—all brought conveniently and expediently to any computer-based device.

Veracord recently teamed with SyberWorks to strengthen its latest industry-specific management tool—the SyberWorks FDA GxP SOP Learning Management and Content System solution. Veracord continually seeks smarter strategies for companies aimed to reduce risk and costs while advancing profitability in the Life Sciences industry. With Veracord's leading industry knowledge and expertise in the validation and compliance arena, SyberWorks now offers the educational component capability companies require when competing in highly regulated industries.

“Veracord's core competency rests in providing leading talent and knowledge in an industry where audit-proof compliance remains paramount,” states David Park Schutz, Veracord CEO.

“SyberWorks technology provides companies with a training solution that comprehensively manages the compliance and certification training, assuring companies compliance while cost effectively mitigating risk.” This partnership marks another move to supply unparalleled, cost-effective solutions, ensuring improved efficiencies and better utilization of resources to increase employee productivity.

SyberWorks also moves forward in providing a greater capability to deliver winning solutions to its clients. “Our partnership with Veracord allows SyberWorks to leverage Veracord's strength and expertise in risk mitigation, compliance, validation, 21 CFR Part 11 and other production standards at work in regulated environments as we provide Learning Management technology to the Life Science, Medical Device, Pharmaceutical and other highly regulated clients,” says Dave Boggs, CEO of SyberWorks.

This September, SyberWorks and Veracord will present a GAMP5 overview that defines GAMP5 and tells how this next GAMP evolution relates to major national and international regulations. The discussion provides industry insight to companies that aim to leverage these guidelines toward FDA compliance—quickly and cost-effectively. The September Webinar begins the first co-marketing effort in a series of planned Webinars throughout the year.
