

SyberWorks LMS e-Learning Implementation Podcast 25: SyberWorks LMS e-Learning Implementation Podcast Discusses Product Training with Brooke White of Avocet's LANDesk Division

Waltham, Massachusetts – May 19, 2009

SyberWorks, Inc., a leader in custom e-Learning Solutions and the Learning Management System (LMS) industry, today announces the next episode in their LMS e-Learning Implementation Podcast Series: "Interview with Brooke White of Avocet's LANDesk Division."

Dave Boggs, CEO of SyberWorks, states:

"This podcast looks at a software company's use of the SyberWorks Hosted Learning Management System (LMS) to provide customer, employee, and partner training. Brooke White, Training Manager for Avocet's LANDesk division, discusses the types of training they offer and their development of traditional classroom training, instructor-led online classes, and self-paced e-Learning."

Boggs continues, "She also outlines their certification program and assessments, with all of their training activities delivered and tracked through the SyberWorks Hosted LMS. In addition, Brooke talks about their instructional-design process and LANDesk's rapid course development cycle."

Mary Kay Lofurno, Marketing Director of SyberWorks narrates the series.
